It is hereby stipulated by and between Christopher Kenneth Coolidge, Defendant, by and through his counsel, Telia Mary U. Williams, Esq., and the United States of America, by and through its counsel, Kevin Schiff, Assistant United States Attorney, that the sentencing date in the above-captioned matter currently scheduled for August 28, 2019, at the hour of 10:00 a.m., be vacated and continued by ninety (90) days at a date and time convenient to this Honorable Court.

This Stipulation is entered into for the following reasons:

1. Counsel for defendant, Christopher Coolidge, has experienced an extraordinarily burdensome schedule, exacerbated by the slowdown and precautions precipitated by the unprecedented pandemic of Covid-19. Counsel therefore requires more time in order to prepare for the defendant's sentencing in order to be effective;
2. In addition, due to precautions needing to be taken by the United States Probation Office, counsel for defendant was prevented from being able to review the criminal history for Mr. Coolidge for herself as she might ordinarily be allowed; as a result, counsel is now investigating how to independently obtain these records which will take time.
3. Mr. Coolidge is currently out of custody on Pretrial Release in the State of Washington. He does not object to the continuance.
4. Counsel for the Government has no objection to the continuance.
5. Denial for this request for continuance would deny defense counsel sufficient time and the opportunity within which to effectively and thoroughly prepare for sentencing, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.
6. Accordingly, denial of this request for continuance would result in a miscarriage of justice.
7. For all the above-stated reasons, the ends of justice would best be served by a continuance of the sentencing date.
8. This is the first request for a continuance of the sentencing date in this case.

DATED this 21st day of August, 2020.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based on the pending Stipulation of counsel, and good cause appearing therefore, the Court finds:

1. Counsel for defendant, Christopher Coolidge, has experienced an extraordinarily burdensome schedule, exacerbated by the slowdown and precautions precipitated by the unprecedented pandemic of Covid-19. Counsel therefore requires more time in order to prepare for the defendant's sentencing in order to be effective.
2. In addition, due to precautions needing to be taken by the United States Probation Office, counsel for defendant was prevented from being able to review the criminal history for Mr. Coolidge for herself as she might ordinarily be allowed; as a result, counsel is now investigating how to independently obtain these records which will take time.
3. Mr. Coolidge is currently out of custody on Pretrial Release in the State of Washington. He does not object to the continuance.
4. Counsel for the Government has no objection to the continuance.
5. Accordingly, denial of this request for continuance would result in a miscarriage of justice.
6. Accordingly, denial of this request for continuance would result in a miscarriage of justice.
7. For all the above-stated reasons, the ends of justice would best be served by a continuance of the sentencing date.
8. This is the first request for a continuance of the sentencing date in this case.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Denial of this request for continuance would deny the defendant, Christopher Coolidge, the opportunity to have his counsel adequately prepared for his sentencing.

As such, denial of this request for continuance could result in a miscarriage of justice.
